

Installation

This panel has the same design and cut as the "MD Light Alpha" model except that it consists of four separate and similar layouts in small dimensions, which you can according to the photo or pattern layout and separately as a single unit according to need And design with individual taste. An affordable solution for use in small and medium-sized spaces such as listening rooms, home theaters recording studios, post-production studios, performance spaces rehearsal rooms, conference and teleconference rooms, public spaces, halls, etc., which are required sound absorption and diffusion characteristics. This panel has excellent absorption capability as well as effective emission rate.

www.Deconik.net

