

Installation

You can see a very different modern, minimal and efficient design in terms of performance in this panel which in addition to its diffuser property, is also considered sound absorbing. This panel is a combination of wood with polyurethane paint coating and acoustic monofoam. Medium and high frequencies are used and cause clarity of sound as well as prevent feedback in the environment.

www.Deconik.net

