

Installation

This sample acoustic panel is very practical, useful and effective in the Deconik sound absorbing category with special features. It consists of four units that can be arranged in a pattern or a single unit according to individual taste. Among the advantages of this panel is absorption it also called the excellent hybrid diffuser, cost-effective and easy to install. The range of frequency absorption of this sound absorbing model is 640 Hz and above. It is an effective and versatile acoustic panel. It is suitable for any space in order to adjust, treat or improve sound waves.

This panel includes 4 units in dimensions: 30*30*6.2 and can be installed in all spaces.

Considering the appearance of this acoustic panel vertically and horizontally, it is very useful in combination with other Deconik acoustic panels.

Can be installed on any flat surface, for example, ceiling and wall

www.Deconik.net

